

Audio | Video | Photograph Licensing Form

The University of London (“the University”) records many of its events, and these recordings may be made available on-line, distributed in other formats or archived. Please sign this form to give your consent to our recording the event to which you are contributing. The term “Event” includes, for the purposes of this form, any performance or presentation you may give.

I agree that:

1. the University may (a) make a recording of my image or voice; (b) take a photograph of me; or (c) make a digital record of my image or voice relating to the Event and to any material which I expressly or impliedly provide (including, without limitation, any visual or aural aids used in connection with my participation in the Event) to the University for that Event (together being the “Materials”);
2. I hereby grant the University a perpetual, worldwide, irrevocable, royalty-free licence (non-exclusive, but with a right to grant sub-licences) to use, copy, publish online/in print, make available, distribute, transmit, perform or display the Materials but only for the purposes of (i) academic and teaching activity; (ii) research facilitation and promotion; and (iii) reporting or knowledge transfer purposes;
3. the University may use my name in relation to its use of the Materials;
4. the University may make a transcript of any recording comprised within the Materials, ensuring it is labelled in a way that distinguishes it from a finished publication (whether or not a finished publication results from the Event);
5. it is understood that the University may edit or modify the Materials, but that through any such editing or modification the University shall not wilfully (a) injure my reputation or good standing; and/or (b) be wilfully derogatory or prejudicial to me.

If I use third party material in connection with my participation in the Event, I undertake to seek such permissions and consents from the relevant third parties as are required to allow the University to use my contribution to the Event in accordance with its rights under this form. Insofar as I am aware, nothing in my contribution to the Event or any Materials produced by me is illegal or infringes any rights of third parties.

If the University is made aware after the Event of (a) allegations of a defamatory nature; or (b) a possible breach of a third party's intellectual property rights, then the relevant Material will be removed from its website to allow for suitable permissions to be granted or an investigation of the complaint to be made as appropriate.

I agree that this form shall be governed by English law and I irrevocably submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
